/Amoeba has been actively involved with electronic music development, AV installations, video projections, underground visual culture and AV performances since the 1990's. Originally in Scotland, mixing graphic design, animation, typographical visuals live for Soma Records, Jeff Mills, Percy X, Slam, T - in the Park, Tribal Gathering, Addictive TV, Muzik Magazine, Radio 1, Kiss fm, Manumission, Rub a Dub records and at many festivals and club events as part of the Scottish Visual Arts collective A .! . A .! . A

A.AV (amoeba.av) was formed in 1999 from amoeba.design, for performance, production and audio-visual experiments with realtime motion graphics, reactive installations, experimental AV software, creative code and live cinema performances.

As an early practitioner of a realtime audio+video technologies, and creative reactive code, A.AV creates unique, fully immersive a/v performances, and bespoke visual music. Debuting with a full reactive visual AV performance at AVITUK 2002 AV Festival.

Evolving continually to this day with events and performances in Russia, Ukraine, London, Germany, Vienna and Paris . Performing at media showcases, music+film festivals, design shows, award ceremonies, art installations and creative code+visual events.

A.AV has now evolved into a cross cultural experiment, with current dvd releases through lightrhythm visuals Japan and broadcasts on German, UK, USA, and Russian TV.
